天津市西青区

Visa

Deadline

The deadline set by the Tianjin Municipal Government to issue the visa invitation letter is 21 June 2016. After this date, we will not be able to support your request.

Application process

Please make sure that your passport (and, if relevant, that of your spouse) is valid for at least six months after the meeting, i.e. early January 2017 onwards. If not, you must renew your passport as soon as possible.

If you indicated on the registration form that you need a visa, please note the following:

1. Wait for your visa invitation letter from the Tianjin Municipal Government

The Tianjin Municipal Government will send you a visa invitation letter by email. Please note that processing your visa invitation letter will normally take five working days.

2. Go to the nearest embassy or consulate and apply for a visa

Once you have received the visa invitation letter, take it with the other documents required by the Chinese authorities to your nearest Chinese embassy, consulate or visa office, where you will be provided with a visa application form. Alternatively, you can download it ahead of time from the Chinese embassy, consulate or visa office's website. You will find the website of Chinese embassies and consulates here: <http://www.fmprc.gov.cn/eng/wjb/zwjg/>

Please use the following information to fill in the application form:

- Apply for a 12-day (21 June–2 July), single-entry business visa to China
- Name of Inviter/Contact (in China): World Economic Forum/Tianjin Foreign Affairs Office

Contact Person: Ms Hu Aijun

Tel.: +86 22 2835 9937

Fax: +86 22 2835 9937

Email: amncvisa@weforum.org

Visa officers at Chinese embassies or consulates make the final decision on the validity, duration of stay and time of entry of a visa and may require applicants to provide additional relevant documents. For general inquiries on visa issues, please consult your nearest Chinese embassy, consulate or visa office.

As a reminder, please ensure that your visa-related information entered in your registration form is accurate. If your visa-related information has changed, please write to AMNCVisa@weforum.org. Note that it takes 21 days for the Tianjin Municipal Government to reissue a corrected visa invitation letter.

Please note that the World Economic Forum is not responsible for providing visas.

Accommodation

PublicisLive, the operations and production provider in charge of all logistics for the meeting, handles accommodation for registered participants at the following hotels: the Astor Hotel, Crowne Plaza, Renaissance Lakeview, the Ritz-Carlton, Sheraton Hotel and Westin Tianjin.

PublicisLive will contact you when you register. If you need more information, please contact PublicisLive at:

Tel.: +41 (0)22 718 6464
Fax: +41 (0)22 736 6600
Email: tianjin@publicislive.com

Security

The Government of the People's Republic of China will provide full state-level security at the Tianjin International Airport, Meijiang Convention and Exhibition Center, and the official hotels. Participants entering the security zone of the meeting venue must have a badge. For questions related to security, please contact:

Security Affairs
World Economic Forum
security@weforum.org

Air travel

Participants should make their own flight arrangements.

Tianjin Binhai International Airport

Tianjin can be reached by frequent and short flight connections from most major airports in Asia, including Shanghai, Hong Kong SAR, Seoul and Nagoya. The airport is 30 kilometres from downtown Tianjin and the transfer time to the official hotels is about 50 minutes, depending on traffic. A complimentary shuttle service will be available from the airport to the official hotels on arrival, and from the official hotels to both airports on departure. (see Airport transfer below)

Beijing Capital International Airport

Tianjin is 150 kilometres from Beijing Capital International Airport and the transfer time to Tianjin is about two and a half hours, depending on traffic. A complimentary shuttle service will be available from the airport to the official hotels on arrival, and from the official hotels to both airports on departure. (see Airport transfer below)

Private jet

For private jets, the aviation company needs to apply for approval from the Civil Aviation Administration of China 15 days before the arrival date. Please contact tjprivatejets2016@163.com (+86 13516196963) to submit your request.

Registration

You will receive your badge at Registration, located near the Meijiang Convention and Exhibition Center.

Please note that you must:

- Bring your passport or identity card to Registration
- Wear your badge visibly at all times; it will allow you to enter the meeting venue, the Cultural Soirée, the Farewell Reception, and use the Forum Shuttles.

Train from/to Beijing

The Beijing-Tianjin Intercity Railway is a high-speed rail line between Beijing and Tianjin. The 117-kilometre line was built to accommodate trains with a maximum speed of 350kmh (217 mph) and high-speed trains on the line reach a top speed of 330 kmh (205mph). When the line opened on 1 August 2008, it had the fastest conventional train service in the world and reduced travel time between the two cities from 70 to 30 minutes.

Approximately four trains leave every hour from Beijing South to Tianjin and Tianjin to Beijing South.

A one-way fare costs between RMB 60-100 (€8-€13.5; $9-$15).

Chauffeur-driven limousine rental

The Tianjin Municipal Government will provide a chauffeur-driven rental limousine service. For bookings and rates, please email tjgovlimoservice@163.com or phone +86 22 28359921 or +86 22 28359923. Booking must be made directly with the service provider. The World Economic Forum is not liable for any booking, changes and/or cancellations.

Taxis

Taxis are not expensive by international standards. If you plan to take a taxi and do not speak Chinese, show the driver the address of your destination in Chinese. Approximate rates: Beijing Capital International Airport to hotels, RMB 900-1,000; Tianjin Binhai International Airport to hotels RMB 100. Please note that Taxis do not accept credit or debit cards.

Programme Management

TopLink and mobile apps

TopLink is the World Economic Forum's digital collaboration, event and knowledge platform. To explore the Annual Meeting of the New Champions 2016 on TopLink, visit <https://toplink.weforum.org/amnc16>.

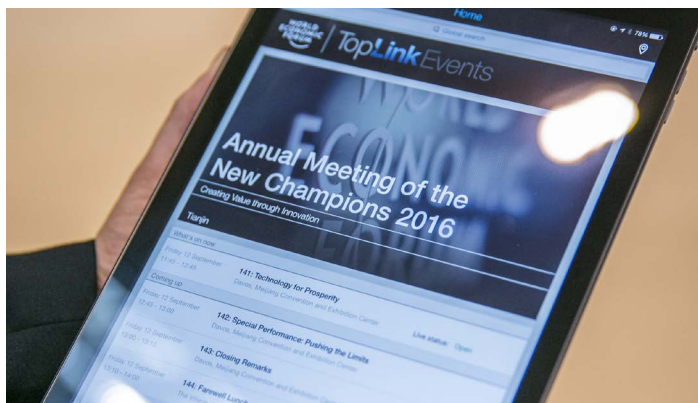

TopLink allows you to:

- Update your digital profile to ensure that the information you share is accurate and other participants can find you
- Follow insights to receive customized recommendations for sessions aligned with your interests
- Find relevant documents, including the programme and participants list, in the Library
- Connect with other participants through the meeting discussion thread or private messaging feature
- Browse the Logistics tab to prepare for your participation
- Explore the programme and build your personal agenda, including speaking roles, community sessions and bilateral meetings
- During and after the event, watch the session webcasts, view photographs and read insight updates/summaries

You can also download the Forum Events app at www.wef.ch/m to:

- Stay abreast of important news and updates through real-time notifications
- Review recommendations of people to meet and sessions in which to take part
- Manage your agenda and arrange meetings with other participants
- Access logistical information
- Keep personal notes about sessions and participants
- Set up an Events app account for your spouse or delegate (More > Settings)
- See who else is participating in a session you are joining

Guests and reporting press can explore the programme and list of participants on the Forum Events app from 19 to 29 June by using the "Tianjin2016" passcode, or via the Kiosks available on site.

NEW Download the Forum Knowledge app at www.wef.ch/kn to:

- Discover contextual knowledge from leading sources across 100+ economies, industries and global issues
- Search for experts by topic
- Check back after the event for insights captured during the sessions

To access TopLink or the mobile apps, you will need your personal username and password. If you have forgotten them, they can be retrieved using the email address that you used to register. For questions, contact toplinksupport@weforum.org.

Language and interpretation

The official language of the meeting is English. Selected sessions may include interpretation into Mandarin Chinese and Japanese. Please refer to the session descriptions in the programme.

Interpreter service

A limited number of interpreters (English-Mandarin Chinese and Mandarin Chinese-English) are available in the Village to facilitate bilateral meetings in the Meijiang Convention and Exhibition Center. Interpreters can be booked at the information desk in the Village on a first-come, first-served basis for a maximum of one hour. We recommend that you make the reservation at least two hours in advance of your appointment.

Spouses

Spouses have access to all sessions. They are also invited to the Cultural Soirée and the Farewell Reception.

If your spouse will participate in the meeting, please indicate it on the registration form or email NewChampions@weforum.org so a security badge can be prepared.

You can set up a Forum Events app account for your spouse prior to the meeting (see the section above) or your spouse can log in on site with the support of Technology Desk staff or through the Kiosks.

Tianjin industry tours

The Tianjin Municipal Government has organized local industry tours for participants and spouses. A detailed programme will be available on TopLink at a later stage. Places are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Buses will leave from the Meijiang Convention and Exhibition Center.

To reserve your place, please RSVP by email to Jiandi Feng at industrialtourjtj@163.com or by telephone at +86 22 2835 9952 from 8:30 to 17:30 Beijing Time (GMT +8).

Table for Two

Eat for one. Feed two. And help the world eat better.

TABLE FOR TWO

In our world of 7 billion, 795 million suffer from undernutrition, while another 2 billion suffer from obesity. Table for Two aims to right this imbalance. During the Annual Meeting of the New Champions 2016, look out for the Table for Two logo and know that, when you eat a balanced Table for Two meal, another meal will be provided to a child in East Africa, South-East Asia or the Middle East.

To date, Table for Two has served over 16 million meals with the support of the World Economic Forum, and we hope that participants will help to increase this number by eating Table for Two branded meals during the meeting.

Table for Two was established in 2007 by members of the Young Global Leaders community. We would encourage you to consider the enormous impact that even a small company or organization can make by implementing this unique model. For more information, please visit www.tablefor2.org.

Practical Information

About Tianjin

Tianjin is a coastal city in northern China and the country's third-largest urban area after Shanghai and Beijing. Tianjin is 100 kilometres from Beijing and can be reached by high-speed train in 35 minutes. Frequent and short flights connect it to most major airports in Asia.

Tianjin's pillar industries include aviation and aerospace, petrochemicals, equipment manufacturing, electronic information, bio-pharmaceuticals, and alternative energy and materials. It has a large concentration of high-tech industries.

Dress code

A business suit or smart casual wear is appropriate throughout the meeting and for the Cultural Soirée. No formal attire is required.

Time zone

Tianjin is eight hours ahead of GMT/UTC.

Electricity

220V, 50Hz

Lithium batteries

According to the Specifications for Air Transport of Dangerous Goods Carried by Passengers or Crew, the rated energy of lithium batteries that are taken onto an airplane either in hand luggage or consigned luggage should not exceed 160wh. Air passengers carrying electronic applications with lithium batteries and spare batteries should pay attention to the following:

- Electronic products that contain lithium batteries, such as watches, calculators, cameras, mobile phones, portable computers and DVs, can be taken as hand luggage and consigned in the checked luggage. The rated energy of the batteries should not exceed 100wh; for those between 100wh and 160wh, the passenger must get the permission of the air company. The electric appliances should be carefully kept to prevent any unexpected start-up.
- Spare batteries can only be carried as hand luggage and should be well preserved to avoid a short-circuit. The rated energy of each battery should not exceed 100wh. For batteries between 100wh and 160wh, the passenger must get the permission of the air company; each passenger is allowed to take up to two spare batteries.
