The Human Capital Report is published by the World Economic Forum, and is the result of collaboration with Mercer and faculty at Harvard University.

Acknowledgements

The Human Capital Report is published by the World Economic Forum, and is the result of collaboration with Mercer and faculty at Harvard University.

LEAD CONTRIBUTORS

At the World Economic Forum

Saadia Zahidi, Senior Director, Head of the Women Leaders & Gender Parity Programme, Human Capital Project and Constituents

At Harvard University

Professor David E. Bloom, Clarence James Gamble Professor of Economics and Demography, Harvard School of Public Health

At Mercer

Patricia A. Milligan, President, North America Region

Richard A. Guzzo, Partner and Co-Leader, Workforce Sciences Institute

Charlotte Harding, Senior Associate, seconded to the World Economic Forum as Project Manager (2012-2013)

PROJECT TEAM

At the World Economic Forum

Amey Soo, Senior Associate

Divya Nair, Intern

At Mercer

Alison Riggieri, Associate

Linda Chen, Associate

A special thank you to Yasmina Bekhouche and Annabel Guinault at the World Economic Forum, Valentina Stoevska at the ILO, Amélie Gagnon at UNESCO and Michaela Saisana at the European Commission Joint Research Centre for their support in the preparation of this Report.

Thank you to Margaret Chabowski and Michael Fisher for their superb editorial work and Neil Weinberg for his excellent interior graphic design and layout.

We are grateful to Kamal Kamaoui and the World Economic Forum's Publications team for their invaluable collaboration on the production of this report.
Contributors’ Bios

David E. Bloom, Clarence James Gamble Professor of Economics and Demography, Harvard School of Public Health, Harvard University, USA; 1976, BSc in Industrial and Labour Relations, Cornell University; 1978, MA in Economics, Princeton University; 1981, PhD in Economics and Demography, Princeton University. Formerly: Assistant Professor of Economics, Carnegie-Mellon; Assistant and Associate Professor of Economics, Harvard; Professor and Chairman of Economics, Columbia, Chair of Global Health and Population Dept, HSPH. Currently: Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Faculty Research Associate, Labour Studies, Ageing, and Health Economics Programmes, National Bureau of Economic Research. Research Fellow, IZA—Institute for the Study of Labor, Director, Harvard Program on Global Demography of Aging. Member, Board of Trustees: amFAR; PSI; JSI R&T. Chair, World Economic Forum Global Agenda Council on Education and Skills; Founding Co-Editor, Journal of the Economics of Ageing.

Richard A. Guzzo, Partner, Mercer, USA. 1974, BSc in Psychology, The Ohio State University; 1976, MA in Administrative Sciences, Yale University; 1979, PhD in Administrative Sciences, Yale University. Formerly: Assistant Professor of Organizational Behavior, McGill University, Canada; Assistant and Associate Professor of Psychology, New York University; Visiting Associate Professor, Shanghai Institute of Mechanical Engineering, China; Associate and Professor of Psychology, University of Maryland; Fellow, Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology. Currently: Co-Leader, Workforce Sciences Institute, Mercer.

Charlotte Harding, Senior Associate, Mercer, BA (Hons) in French and Criminology; MBA student at University of Warwick. Formerly worked in project management for the UK Emergency services and at the European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN). Since 2004, Product and Project Manager within Mercer’s Talent business. Seconded to the World Economic Forum June 2012 to October 2013 as Project Manager for the Human Capital Project.

Patricia A. Milligan, Senior Partner and President, North America Region, Mercer. Studies: School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University; Kellogg Graduate School of Management, Northwestern University. 1990-2002, Executive Committee Member, Board of Directors, Business Leader for Human Capital Business, Towers Perrin; 2003-05, Region Business Leader, Mellon Human Resources Services; 2005-2008, Senior Partner and Chief Markets Officer, Mercer; 2008-2012, Senior Partner and President, Talent Business, Mercer (MMCo); Member, Executive and Operating committees. Expertise: human capital strategy, HR function strategy, talent management, rewards strategy.

Saadia Zahidi, Senior Director, World Economic Forum. BA (Hons) in Economics, Smith College; Masters in International Economics, Graduate Institute of International Studies; Masters of Public Administration, Harvard University. With World Economic Forum: formerly Economist, Global Competitiveness Programme, responsible for economic analysis for the Global Competitiveness reports and other topical and regional studies; currently, Head of Women Leaders & Gender Parity Programme; Human Capital Project; and Constituents. Founder and Co-Author, Global Gender Gap Report series, benchmarking countries according to the size of their gender gaps on health, education, economic participation and political empowerment.