

2016-2017 GLF Alumni Steering Committee

COMMITTED TO
IMPROVING THE STATE
OF THE WORLD

MEMBERS

Marcello MASTIONI
(2006)

Story: The community aspect and the sense of purpose are the two strongest and most interesting drivers for me in my experience with the Forum and its alumni

Position/Organization: Vice-President and Managing Director, EMEA, HomeAway, Expedia Inc.

Nationality: Italian

Current Location: Geneva, Switzerland

Valérie PEYRE
(2007)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme has been a great source of inspiration and learning for me as well as a place to meet and connect with exceptional people, accomplished leaders or ones in the making. As a member of the Steering Committee, I hope to contribute to strengthening the alumni community, and help turn great ideas into strong value propositions for all its members.

Position/Organization: Director, Head of Community and Partnership in Education, Gender and Work, World Economic Forum

Nationality: French

Current Location: France

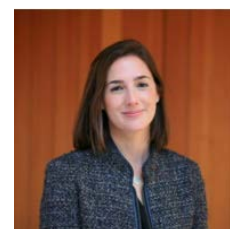

Matthias CATÓN
(2008)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme is unique and probably the best programme of its kind anywhere in the world. Its alumni are an amazing pool of talented professionals. I serve on the Board because I want to strengthen this community and help it to carry out the mission of the World Economic Forum of improving the state of the world.

Position/Organization: Programme Director, Frankfurt School of Finance & Management

Nationality: German / Spanish

Current Location: Frankfurt, Germany

Jennifer ROGAN
(2009)

Story: For me, the Global Leadership Fellows Programme represents a global community of professionals dedicated to creating positive change in their field, be it in the public, private or non-profit sectors. By serving on the Alumni Steering Board, I hope to foster new connections, impactful collaborations and deep friendships among this diverse group of leaders.

Position/Organization: Sustainability Consultant

Nationality: British

Current Location: Oxford, United Kingdom

Kai-yan LEE
(2010)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme is a platform for tremendous learning and experimentation in global leadership. It has been critical in preparing me for my current role, namely to lead a major Chinese company's globalization efforts in the US. The Steering Committee is an opportunity to contribute to the platform even after we graduate, enabling us to lead and make an impact in the increasingly global environment.

Position/Organization: Managing Director, Vanke Holdings USA

Nationality: American

Current Location: New York, USA

Tiffany CHAN
(2012)

Story: The path to meaningful global leadership, begins with oneself. The Global Leadership Fellows Programme provides a unique platform for self-discovery and authentic connections, while also giving exposure to the world's greatest challenges and innovations. Through the programme, fellows hone their intellect and skills to become true leaders and effective change makers. As a Steering Board member, I am committed to enhancing its alumni community and deepening the networks among fellows and alumni.

Position/Organization: Founder and Lead Consultant, Infinis Advisory

Nationality: American

Current Location: Washington, DC, USA

Tatiana KALASHNIKOVA
(2011)

Story: For me, the Global Leadership Fellows Programme is a unique community of talented and ambitious individuals who strive to bring about change. It is also a profound personal journey that allows fellows to gain a deeper understanding of themselves, explore and ultimately become better leaders. I serve on the Alumni Steering Board because I see the alumni community as a source of long-lasting value for those who have been part of the programme and it is an honour to contribute to strengthening it.

Position/Organization: Head of Business Engagement, Europe and Eurasia, World Economic Forum

Nationality: Russian

Current Location: Geneva, Switzerland

Vera SCHNEIDER
(2012)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme offers dynamic and challenging learning opportunities that can have a tremendous influence on personal and professional development. By serving on the Steering Board, I hope to contribute to the design of the alumni network, strengthen links within the community and seek ways to facilitate impactful collaborations.

Position/Organization: Programme Manager, Executive MBA & MSc in Global Hospitality Management, Ecole Hôtelière de Lausanne

Nationality: South African / German

Current Location: Switzerland

Manuel WÄCHTER
(2012)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme is an identity workspace, where one can develop a better understanding of the world and one's abilities to make a difference. I joined the Steering Committee to help alumni keep that spirit alive, wherever we may be.

Position/Organization: Managing Director / EqualPlus

Nationality: French

Current Location: London, UK

Marie ERIKSSON
(2013)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme has helped me to increase understanding about myself and the world. I now consider myself a better person, leader and visionary. The unique attributes of the programme are the fellows and the exposure to other Forum communities. As a Steering Board member, I hope to develop the alumni body into a strong peer community that keeps learning, collaborating and creates an impact in the world. I also wish to find collaborations with other Forum communities.

Position/Organization: CE

Nationality: Swedish

Current Location: Switzerland

Wadia Ait Hamza
(2013)

Story: The Global Leadership Fellows Programme is a learning journey to excellence. It is not the usual leadership programme as it focuses on developing know-how as opposed to knowledge. The programme gives its members space and provides an environment in which fellows can learn, thrive, coach and mentor each other. Fellows are exceptional leaders and world citizens and the programme is a great boost to achieving their goals.

Position/ Organization: Head of Foundations, the Americas, World Economic Forum

Nationality: Moroccan

Current Location: Geneva, Switzerland
