

World Economic Forum

Partnering Against Corruption Initiative (PACI) Signatories

Recognizing the power of multi-stakeholder, collaborative action in transforming the global, regional and industry agendas on combating corruption, the PACI Principles serve as a call to action for businesses around the world to commit to zero tolerance of corruption in all its forms; and to join collective action initiatives to increase public trust in business, deliver fair markets and level the playing field by fighting corruption.

(As of October 2020)

ABB	HSBC
Absa Group Limited	Iberdrola S.A.
Accenture	Infosys
Agility	JLL
Aker ASA	KPMG International
Anglo American	LRN Corporation
Anheuser-Busch InBev	Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd
APCO Worldwide	Manpower Group
ARTOC Group for Investment and Development	Marhnos SA de CV
Arup Group	Marriott International
Bajaj Auto Ltd	Mastercard International
Baker & McKenzie	Mercuria
Banco Hipotecario SA	Microsoft Corporation
BASF	Millicom International Cellular SA
The Boston Consulting Group	Nedbank Group Limited
BT Group Plc.	Newmont Mining Corporation
Citigroup	Nokia Corporation
Clifford Chance	Novartis International AG
The Coca-Cola Company	Oando Plc
Codewise Sp. z o.o. Sp. k.	Old Mutual
Consolidated Contractors Company (CCC)	Pathfinder Group
Crescent Group Limited	Petroleo Brasileiro SA – (PETROBRAS)
Danfoss A/S	PwC
Dell Technologies	Repsol
Deloitte	Royal DSM NV
Dentsu Aegis Network	Royal Dutch Shell
Deutsche Post DHL	Royal Philips
Ecolab Inc	Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC)
Edelman	Saudi Telecom Group
Enel SpA	Siemens AG
Eni SpA	Snam S.p.A.
Equinor	SNC-Lavalin Group
Eurasian Resources Group SàRL	Standard Chartered Bank
EY	Syngenta International AG
Fluor Corporation	Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson
Genpact	Telenor Group
Glencore plc	Thomson Reuters
Google (Alphabet)	Total
GranBio Investimentos SA	Unilever
Grupo Energía Bogotá (GEB)	Vattenfall AB
Guidehouse Inc.	Vestas Wind Systems
Henkel AG & Co.	Walmart Inc.
Hewlett Packard Enterprise	WISEKey
Hikma Pharmaceuticals	Yara International ASA