

---

COMMITTED TO
IMPROVING THE STATE
OF THE WORLD

Global Shapers

---

WORLD ECONOMIC FORUM
Annual Meeting 2014
22-25 January, Davos-Klosters, Switzerland

www.weforum.org | www.globalshapers.org

A stylized, light gray silhouette of a city skyline with various building shapes, located at the bottom of the page.

Umar ANWAR JAHANGIR, Founder and Secretary, Bahria Medics, Islamabad Hub

Expertise: Healthcare, Policy making, Clinical medicine

While studying to become a medical doctor, Umar has founded Bahria Medics, a student-run welfare organization. As the head of Bahria Medics, he sets the mandate for the organization, organizes blood drives, medical camps and fund raising events, runs a blood bank and works towards decreasing the prevalence of end stage kidney disease in Pakistan

Ayman ARANDI, Co-Founder, Iris Interactive Solutions, Ramallah Hub

Expertise: Entrepreneurship, Touch-technology, Innovation

Ayman is a young Palestinian entrepreneur who evolved a university project into the first Palestinian company providing cutting-edge touch-technology products to various industries and business sectors. Ayman’s other project, “Marhaba Palestine!”, has won several national and international awards in entrepreneurship and innovation. Ayman’s graduation project in Computer Engineering “TouchIS” has been awarded the second best invention prize in the Made-In-Palestine ‘09 and Made-In-Arabworld ‘09 Competitions.

Dwi Lestari ARIOTEDJO, General Practician, Ruteng Public Hospital, Jakarta Hub

Expertise: Medicine, Music, Philantropy, Children

Mostly known as “Mesty”, Dwi Lestari is a medical doctor helping people in remote areas of Indonesia. Currently, she is working in the third grade hospital Ruteng Public Hospital, the only public hospital in three regencies. Music is another passion she has. Mesty plays harp and flute in Twilite Orchestra and the National Symphony Orchestra. She has established a free music school for unfortunate children called Children in Harmony. Mesty is the spokesperson of Indonesia Heart Foundation and the ambassador of Indonesia Classical Music Foundation.

Noreen BAUTISTA, General Manager, CBS Social Enterprise Asia, Manila Hun

Expertise: Social entrepreneurship, Crowdfunding, Indigenous communities

At age 20, Noreen co-founded Ecolngenuity Inc., an award-winning social enterprise that aims to raise competitiveness of indigenous communities producing products from local materials. In 2012, she co-founded SlashIgnite aiming to catalyze entrepreneurial spirit of those making positive difference in their communities. She has also launched the Filipino crowdfunding site www.thesparkproject.com and the online advocacy EntrepsBuildPH to foster a community of social entrepreneurs and innovators in the Philippines. Currently, Noreen is General Manager at CBS Social Enterprise Asia providing professional business support and consulting services to social enterprises looking to scale their ventures.

Jessica BEEGLE, Healthcare and Life Science Leader, Amazon, Seattle Hub

Expertise: Law, Healthcare, Life science, Scientific innovation

Jessica is a lawyer who has worked across a variety of sectors including healthcare, government, energy, and finance. She is a graduate of General Electric’s premier global commercial leadership development program and currently leads Healthcare & Life Science business development for Amazon (AWS), where she is creating a new ecosystem that will harness the power of big data to enable scientific innovation. She has a passion for exploring the intersection of business and technology to inspire organizational growth, excite customers, and disrupt industries.

Alejandro BRENES, Founder and CEO, Enertiva, San Jose Hub

Expertise: Solar energy, Entrepreneurship, Central America

A passionate entrepreneur, Alejandro has founded four companies in engineering, fast food, event promotion and renewable energy. He is CEO and Founder of Enertiva Costa Rica, a Solar Energy Company in Central America with more than 3000 projects in its portfolio, and Consultant and Coach at Yo Emprendedor, an NGO that promotes entrepreneurial ecosystems in Costa Rica. Alejandro is also director of the Global Entrepreneurship Week in Costa Rica, a TEDx speaker and entrepreneurship blogger for a business newspaper.

Dina BUCHBINDER AURON, Director, Deport-es para Compartir, Mexico City Hub

Expertise: Children, Youth, Social Entrepreneurship

Dina is a social entrepreneur passionate about children's ideas and potential. In 2007, she founded Deport-es para Compartir (Sports for Sharing), an educational and civic program that teaches children to become better citizens in a fun, meaningful way through games and sports activities. Throughout her career, she has received several awards and distinctions including the YouthActionNet Global Fellowship, International Youth Foundation, the UVM Award for Social Development, the Women's Mexican National Award for Philanthropy, and Ashoka Fellowship. She currently serves as Director of the UN Youth Association in Mexico.

Rodrigo DIAMANTI, President, Un Mundo Sin Mordaza, Caracas Hub

Expertise: Education, Public policy, Human rights, Youth empowerment

Rodrigo is the Founder of several movements and NGOs, including Un Mundo Sin Mordaza (A World Without Censorship), an NGO that promotes and defends human rights worldwide through art. Prior to this he co-Founded of the Students' Movement Venezuela and Futuro Presente, an NGO focused on the education of young people in the sphere of public policy. Rodrigo is a Senior Fellow of Alliance of Youth Movements and a recipient of the Medal of the City of Rome. He is also an international lecturer.

Shuwen DIAO, Producer, International Channel Shanghai, Shanghai Hub

Expertise: Television, Reality shows, Social Integration, China

Having worked in the TV industry for almost six years, Shuwen is one of the youngest producers at the Shanghai Media Group. She currently heads the reality show "The Amazing Race: China Rush" and the sitcom "In The Office" at the International Channel in Shanghai. She is Founder of Oh My English, an online English teaching platform. Together with other Global Shapers in Shanghai, she runs the Mission RONG project (RONG meaning "integration"), designed to assist non-Shanghai students and migrant schoolchildren establish a firm social identity and improve social integration.

Mariana DIAZ, Founder, R21 Foundation, Buenos Aires Hub

Expertise: Environmental journalism, Climate change

Mariana is a journalist specializing in environmental and sustainability issues. She is currently a TV Host at C5N, one of the most important news channels in Argentina. She co-founded the R21 Foundation which specializes in mass communication, and is dedicated to raising awareness about the environmental, social and economic crises throughout Latin America. Mariana was trained by Al Gore, a Nobel Peace Prize winner, and has subsequently delivered the award winning conference, An Inconvenient Truth. She was chosen as a Young Leader or Climate Champion by the British Council.

DING JIE, Executive Director, Liaoning TV Station, Anshan Hub

Expertise: China, Media, Public relations, Social media, Education, Television

Ding Jie is an Executive Director of Liaoning TV Station, founded in 1959, one of the five most established stations in China covering around 200 cities and 560 million people. She is an expert in social media and believes new ways of media can lead to social change. She is also the youngest director of Liaoning Foreign language and translation Association. In her free time, Ding Jie enjoys playing piano, dancing salsa, swimming, singing, painting and calligraphy.

Bousso DRAME, Policy Specialist, The World Bank, Dakar Hub

Expertise: Development, Policy-making, Education, Youth unemployment, Africa

Bousso is passionate about policy-making as a powerful tool for empowering vulnerable communities and positioning African countries on the path to prosperity. She is a development professional currently working as a Policy Specialist at the World Bank in Dakar. Prior to this, Bousso spent four years advising African governments on driving reforms aimed at tackling poverty by leveraging the private sector. She also worked on health policy and investment climate reforms. She is the recipient of Senegalese Government's Excellency Scholarship and Eiffel Excellency Scholarship, France.

Oleksandr ELKIN, Deputy Director, Educational Initiatives, Stella Systems, Kharkiv Hub

Expertise: Information Technologies in Education, Computer Science, Translation, Ukraine

A specialist in computer science and non-profit institutions, Oleksandr has longstanding experience in management and education. Currently Deputy Director of Educational Initiatives at Stella Systems (the official representative of School Champion in Ukraine), he facilitates a number of social projects aimed at implementation of technologies in the educational system. This includes EDUkIT websites for schools and other educational institutions and Khan Academy, translating educational materials into Russian and Ukrainian

Maria FANJUL, Chief Executive Officer , entradas.com, Madrid Hub

Expertise: Entrepreneurship, Technology, Power of youth

At age 28, Maria became CEO of entradas.com, the leading ticketing portal and one of the top e-commerce companies in Spain. An entrepreneur with a passion for technology, Maria also co-founded, Chamberi Valley, a networking initiative focused on helping consolidated entrepreneurs learn from each other while working with local and national institutions to create an entrepreneurial ecosystem in Spain. Maria is a Member of the Executive Committee of Spain Startup & Investor Summit, a mentor at IE Business School, and lecturer at ICADE and ESIC universities.

Christopher GEARY, COO/CIO, Asianet Group / YTS Investments, Hong Kong Hub

Expertise: Fostering entrepreneurship and innovation, Ethical business practices

Christopher is COO of the Asianet Group advising on talent and private equity strategy, and CIO of YTS Investments, a Venture Capital firm investing in profit making social ventures. He is dedicated to the development of creative economy that can incubate a start-up and innovation environment in Hong Kong. He has founded the Fargo Foundation, Hong Treasure Hunt and StreetPoppy Graffiti Art, Hong Kong. His interests include playing music, deep diving, Muay Thai and rugby.

Caroline GHOSN, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Levo, New York Hub

Expertise: Entrepreneurship, Technology, Social change, Gender gap

Recently named one of Fast Company's 100 Most Creative People in Business, Caroline Ghosn is Founder and CEO of Levo, an organization that aims to create the ultimate professional network to elevate the careers of Gen Y women and democratize access to professional success. Caroline graduated from Stanford University in 2008 with a B.A. in International Political Economy and Economics with Honours. Passionate about entrepreneurship and social change from an early age, Caroline believes that we can apply technology to transform some of our stickiest social failures.

Francisco GOIANA-DA-SILVA, Assistant Professor, University of Lisbon, Lisbon Hub

Expertise: Healthcare, Medicine, Music, Art, Writing

Also known as "Kiko", Francisco is an entrepreneurial young doctor working to change the politics of Portuguese healthcare. During his studies, he became the President of the Lisbon Students Union and was responsible for the creation of a news class in the Faculty of Medicine on Healthcare Management and Innovation at the University of Lisbon. He is also the author of two published children's books, "A day in the Teddy Bear Hospital" and "Matilde is Bald", and a self-made sculptor exhibiting on individual and collective exhibitions.

Adam GRODECKI, Co-Founder, Student Hubs, London Hub

Expertise: Social entrepreneurship, Sustainable capitalism, Youth empowerment

Adam is currently founding a new initiative with BCG to harness emerging business leaders to drive the shift to sustainable capitalism. He is a Co-Founder of Student Hubs, a charity building the next generation of socially aware and active leaders through its network of 25k students in top UK universities. He is a Director of Emerge, a joint initiative between Student Hubs and the Skoll Centre of Social Entrepreneurship at Said Business School to inspire the next generation of social entrepreneurs. Adam is a Board Member of Emerge Lab, an accelerator programme for educational start-ups. First class degree (Hons) in Theology, University of Oxford.

Matthew GROLLNEK, Founder, Startup Junction, Lusaka Hub

Expertise: Entrepreneurship, Education, Innovation, Africa

Matthew is a Zambian-based entrepreneur who works at the intersection of entrepreneurship and education in Africa. He is currently focused on pulling together and incubating a community of entrepreneurs in Lusaka to promote Zambian-owned businesses and to encourage investment. He is also Founder of the social enterprise Salama Documents, which provided Nairobi's urban poor the opportunity to save copies of vital documents to the cloud in case these documents are ever lost or damaged.

Arundhuti GUPTA, Founder and CEO, Mentor Together, Bangalore Hub

Expertise: Mentorship, At-risk youth, Youth leadership

Arundhuti is a Founder and CEO of Mentor Together, a non-profit that seeks to provide at-risk youth with mentors who help them achieve their goals and dreams. Arundhuti started Mentor Together in November 2009, after returning from the Manchester Business School, UK, where she studied as a Commonwealth Scholar. She has many feathers in her young cap. Arundhuti was a YouthActionNet Global Fellow, an invited delegate to the World Justice Forum conferences, a Starting Bloc Fellow, a Salzburg Trilogue Future Global Leader, and a Goldman Sachs Global Leader.

Mushfiq HASANOV, Chief Executive Officer, Altro Creative, Baku Hub

Expertise: Finance, Entrepreneurship, Leadership, Eurasia

For over two years, Mushfiq has managed a major project in Azerbaijan that has helped over 2000 people improve their financial, entrepreneurial and managerial skills in the fields very important to the county, such as agriculture, microcredit, and other. Currently he is running an agency of creative marketing and advertising solutions. He is a double bronze medalist of Moscow in chess, and a triple debate champion of “The best speaker” competition in Azerbaijan.

Wricha JOHARI, Founder, WAY-Everything Connects, Ahmedabad Hub

Expertise: Environment, Sustainable development, Education, Communication

Wricha is a passionate Development Communicator with expertise in environment, education and action for sustainable development. She is a Founder and Programme Director of WAY- Everything Connects, a unique behavioural change communication programme for school children to raises awareness of the environment. She believes communication is a very strong and crucial tool for solving any social and environmental problems, and has lead Hub projects on waste upcycling and solar cooking kits.

Catherine “Whitney” JOHNSON, Founder and CEO, Ubuntu Africa, Cape Town Hub

Expertise: Healthcare, HIV, Children, Youth, Africa

Whitney is a Founder and Executive Director of Ubuntu Africa, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the health and wellbeing of HIV+ children and teens in under-served communities in South Africa by providing community-based health and support services. Activist, youth leader and public speaker, Whitney is committed to fostering an empowered attitude towards HIV/AIDS among young people worldwide and engaging them to participate in improving conditions for people affected by global health challenges.

Madiha AL JUNAID, Management Assistant, AlKurby for Oil and Gas, Sana'a Hub

Expertise: Civil society, Volunteering, Children, Youth

Currently a PR and Management Assistant at AlKurby Company for Oil Fields Services, Madiha is also a Founding Member of the Internet Society in Yemen and a keen civil society leader. She was involved SOUL for Development and played a significant role in youth education and empowerment. She is a Former Member of the “Make a joy” initiation to fight cancer and children labour.

Pavel KOKTYSHEV, Co-Founder and CEO, Young Entrepreneurs Club, Almaty Hub

Expertise: Leadership, Classical liberalism, Intellectual entrepreneurship, Project management

Pavel is passionate about developing the next generation of entrepreneurs in Central Asia, giving young people means to start their own businesses, turning jobless youth into young job creators. CEO and Co-Founder of the Club of Young Entrepreneurs, his organization seeks to train hundreds of young entrepreneurs, providing mentorship and access to finance. Pavel is a representative of the Global Entrepreneurship Week in Kazakhstan and an organizer of the Forum of Young Entrepreneurs. He is also a TV host, blogger, columnist, social activist and trainer. Formerly, he served as Vice-President of the Green Party of Kazakhstan.

Mohamad Ziad MABSOUT, Senior Investment Analyst, ProPartners M.E., Beirut Hub

Expertise: Youth employment, Technology, Entrepreneurship, Youth empowerment

In addition to working as an Investment Analyst specializing in family office, Ziad Co-Founded Ublity Net. This start-up aims to produce a Wi-Fi network access controller that bills network usage based on a combination of the used application, quality of service, time and amount of data. He serves as a Board member of several other start-ups, lectures entrepreneurship at BAU in Lebanon, and was announced a Youth Ambassador for Lebanon at the Arab Thought Foundation.

Raaida MANNAA, Founder, Global Youth Volunteers, Barranquilla Hub

Expertise: Volunteering, Communication, Audio-visual production, Mass media

Raaida has started an online platform where young people from all over the world come together to pursue their passion, build their skills, and multiply their impact through volunteering. She has also co-Founded red2021, a Latin-American campaign celebrating youth volunteering commitments. Raaida is an international speaker and adviser on strategic communication and networking for governments and non-profit organizations. She is an audio-visual production specialist, communications and mass media professional, and a former documentary producer and reporter.

Raffi MARDIROSIAN, Founder, SEDI Labs / Gigawatt Global, Boston Hub

Expertise: Solar power equipment, Job creation in emerging markets, Innovation, Agriculture

Raffi is a social entrepreneur focused on economic development and sustainability. He is working on solar power development (Gigawatt Global) and job creation in emerging and frontier markets (SEDI Labs), agricultural value chain innovations (eKutir, 2Seeds, SEDI), solar financing innovation (SEDI Labs), and peacemaking (Peace First). Raffi is passionate about innovation and new approaches to global challenges. Past experiences include biotech start-up focused on new approaches to food production; healthcare, energy, and economic development consulting at McKinsey & Co; central banking at Reserve Bank of India; Infrastructure finance at BNP Paribas.

Alyona MARKOVICH, Director for Strategic Development, GameChangers, St. Petersburg Hub

Expertise: Education, Social entrepreneurship, Urban development and Public policy

As Director of Strategic Development for the GameChangers Education and Research Programme, Alyona is passionate about developing tools to educate talented students in technology, entrepreneurship, open innovations and social entrepreneurship in Russia. The programme is designed to teach skills and knowledge not covered in universities, but which help prepare young people to open new businesses or increase their employability in top positions in Russian and international companies. Alyona will also be starting Teach for Russia next year. She is a TEDx organiser and recipient of various scholarships.

Apurv MISHRA, Founder, Glavio Wearable Computing, Bhubaneswar Hub

Expertise: Wearable computing, Science, Engineering, Technology solutions in healthcare

Apurv is a young inventor. Among his inventions are devices for people with low vision, devices for monitoring health and a "Glabenator", a communication device for people with paralysis, which he created in response to a condition his grandfather faced. He founded Glavio Wearable Computing; IFFGlobal, one of the first think tanks on open innovation; Future.ly for geospatial mapping of emerging technology clusters. He has lectured during the Nobel Prize Ceremony in Stockholm and won the International Science & Engineering Fair Grand Award and a National Award from President of India. Apurv holds an MPhil in Technology Policy from the University of Cambridge and is the youngest TED Fellow.

Anders MJASET, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, MESH, Oslo Hub

Expertise: Fostering innovation and entrepreneurship

Anders is a serial entrepreneur with both failures and successful start-ups in his merit list. Spurred on by the limited entrepreneurial culture in Norway, Anders created modern infrastructure to connect and accelerate modern innovators and is working on developing an entrepreneurial ecosystem in Norway. The goal is to create a modern subculture for modern thinker-doers and connect it strongly to the international community.

Reem MOUAZZEN, Founder, FilFil Smart Phone App, Los Angeles Hub

Expertise: Media, Social media, Smartphone apps

Reem Mouazzen is a young Syrian American global media professional. She has worked for major international broadcasters such as ABC News, CNBC and MBC in Los Angeles, Dubai and London. She graduated from the University of Southern California and received her MBA from the London Business School. Reem has also developed her own smart phone app, FilFil, which is the first Middle Eastern social media food app. Reem is a member of the Alliance for Women in Media. In her spare time, Reem enjoys playing tennis, hiking, flying single engines planes and discovering various cuisines around the world.

Chau NGUYEN HUYEN, Analyst, The State Capital Investment Corporation, Hanoi Hub

Expertise: Charity, Social activities, Young people, Vietnam

At the State Capital Investment Corporation, Chau manages a portfolio of 5 State enterprises. For nearly 10 years, she has been actively involved in charity and social activities. She founded the 808 Dance Community which aims to promote young dancers and the art of dancing. One of her latest projects was a kindergarten that she has built for minority children in the highland region of Vietnam. For her contribution, she was nominated to be a Vietnamese delegate to join the 8th Great Mekong Subregion Youth Friendship Exchange in 2012.

Doreen E. NONI, Owner and Creative Director, Eskado Bird, Dar Es Salaam Hub

Expertise: Fashion, Design, Multimedia, Creativity, Youth empowerment

Doreen is owner and designer of fashion label Eskado Bird, the owner of a multimedia company Miracle Films & Studios (Mifistudios) and the local partner of Film Crew In Africa, an East African production house. Doreen is passionate about youth empowerment and continues to use creative channels to voice certain issues that are common in her society. She collaborates with others in Tanzania on initiatives to support the What's Your Freedom? (WYF?) campaign which aims to nurture artistic talent and creativity.

Ebuka OBI-UCHENDU, Senior Partner, Knight & Sheriff, Lagos Hub

Expertise: Entertainment, Television, Intellectual property, Law

Ebuka Obi-Uchendu is an Intellectual Property and Entertainment Lawyer with a passion for change. A television host with over seven years on national and continental television. The youngest ever host in Nigeria of a live presidential debate in the run up to the 2011 general elections. Writer for national newspapers, magazines and blogs and member, 'Enough Is Enough Nigeria'.

Gilbert OMWARE, Executive Director, African Solutions for Africa Program, Nairobi Hub

Expertise: Education, Youth development, Leadership, Agriculture, ICT, Public Policy

Gilbert's dream is to see Africa offering the best education in the world by 2030. He founded African Solutions for Africa Programs, a youth training and leadership NGO offering school based programs and training workshops in Agribusiness, ICT, and Policy Advocacy for vulnerable youth in urban informal settlements. In 2012 he was selected as a British Council Global Changemaker. Gilbert bears a passion for languages and can speak English, Luo, Swahili, French and Arabic.

Rina Onur, Co-Founder and Chief Strategy Officer, Peak Games, Istanbul Hub

Expertise: Turkish startup ecosystem, Online and mobile gaming

Rina is the Co-Founder and Chief Strategy Officer of Peak Games, the leading online and mobile gaming company of Turkey, Middle East and North Africa regions and the 3rd largest online gaming company on Facebook globally with over 35 million monthly and 12 million daily active users. Rina is also a Co-Founder at Hemenkiralik.com, the leading local marketplace for short-term rental space in Turkey targeted at domestic and neighbouring markets. Previously, Rina has worked as an investment banker for Morgan Stanley and as an investment professional at Turkven Private Equity covering Turkey & MENA regions.

Hiromi OZAKI, Assistant Professor, MIT - Media Laboratory, Tokyo Hub

Expertise: Art, Technology, Music

In the art world, Hiromi is known as Sputniko! She uses design to explore technology's impact on everyday life and to imagine the future. Her art practice includes creating songs and music videos about products she has designed, which she posts on social networks and online video platforms to encourage discussion outside traditional academic spheres. Sputniko! has presented her film and installation works at exhibitions such as Talk to Me (MoMA, New York, 2011) and Transformation (Museum of Contemporary Art Tokyo, 2010). In 2013, she has joined MIT Media Lab as an Assistant Professor.

Jennifer RAFFOUL, Founder, Made in the Caribbean, Port of Spain Hub

Expertise: Economics, Banking, Development, Caribbean

Jennifer is a Bond Trader at RBC Merchant Bank (Caribbean) and Founder of MadeintheCaribbean.com, an e-commerce website promoting products made in the Caribbean and a finalist in the World Bank's InfoDev competition (2013), winning the Public Choice Award. Formerly, she has worked at the Inter-American Development Bank, assisting in developing the Trinidad and Tobago Country Strategy lending envelope of over US$ 1 billion. Jennifer is a certified Hatha Yoga instructor and is studying holistic nutrition at the Institute of Integrative Nutrition.

Bonolo RAMOKHELE, Executive Director, Leofortis Group, Johannesburg Hub

Expertise: Finance and Investment

Bonolo is an entrepreneur, mentor, change agent and avid reader. He is a Chartered Accountant and Executive Director of Leofortis Group, a holding company with investments in operational companies spanning energy, rail telecommunications, mining technology, minerals trading and telecommunication, with offices in Kenya, South Sudan and South Africa. He is also a Chairperson at ABASA Education Committee, Member of ABASA Bursary committee, Patron of Lukhanyo Childrens Home, and a Senior Lecturer of Final Year Group Financial Reporting at the University of South Africa.

Dilbar SADYKOVA, CEO, International Youth Diplomacy League, Kazan Hub

Expertise: Sports events, Youth diplomacy, Russian regions

As a CEO of the International Youth Diplomacy League, Dilbar is discovering new political, business and civil society leaders and encourages research on public policy, economy and world countries' culture. Dilbar was a Chief Expert of the Summer Universiade Kazan 2013, which welcomed over 11 500 young sportsmen from 160 countries in Kazan. Dilbar managed engagement of over 20 000 volunteers, among other responsibilities. She is passionate about developing intercultural dialogue and youth diplomacy.

Amr EL SALANEKLY, Investment Professional, Delta Shield for Investment, Giza Hub

Expertise: Technology, Social entrepreneurship

Amr is a serial entrepreneur turned investor. He founded his first tech company at the age 18 and sold it a year later. He is also a Co-Founder of Educate Me, a social enterprise aimed at bettering the lives of underprivileged children, and helped grow the organization to have 135 children, 90 volunteers and an enlightenment centre. For the past two years, he has been leading business development efforts at Wild Guanabana, a growing start-up. He also leads early stage portfolio at Delta Shield for Investment.

Amir SHIHADAH, Youth Association for Reality and Awareness, Amman Hub

Expertise: Environment, Education, Poverty, Religion, Youth empowerment

Amir's organization, YARA, is a non-profit established in Jordan in 2010. YARA makes tangible changes in the community by creating awareness campaigns in areas that are usually undiscovered, untouched, and forgotten. YARA covers environment, education, religion, poverty, sustainable projects, and youth empowerment. Amir is also the Chief Operating Officer at Mlabbas. He is a Fellow for the King Abdullah Award for Youth Innovation and Achievement.

Akshat SINGHAL, Co-Founder, The Blue Ribbon Movement, Mumbai Hub

Expertise: Leadership education, Social entrepreneurship

Akshat has worked with social and corporate sector for over 8 years, and co-founded the Blue Ribbon Movement (BRM), a social organization that creates and nurtures social leaders. BRM's expertise lies in designing and delivering leadership programs to young people across borders and on different scales. Akshat is responsible for operations, project implementation and product development. He loves adventure sports, long distance cycling, swimming, tennis, astronomy and travelling.

Terence STEINBERG, Executive Director, A Tu Lado, Minneapolis Hub

Expertise: Emergency medicine, Non-profits, Sports

Dedicated to creating sustainable impact in under-served communities, Terence serves as Executive Director at A Tu Lado, a Minneapolis-based NGO that supports frontline health workers through collaborations in emergency medical education in Venezuela and Bolivia. Terence oversees the organization's collaborations with medical services and universities, and builds coalitions that implement standardized, university-based medical training programs. Terence is an avid marathoner, triathlete, and two-time Ironman

Hamza TAHIRI, Founder, Ionia Consulting, Geneva Hub

Expertise: Renewable energy, Environment, Recycling, Youth empowerment

Hamza is a French entrepreneur with an electrical engineering and business administration background. He worked in the renewable energy industry in China, before starting his own practice. In order to realize his goal of making a positive contribution to society and the environment, he initiated the collection and recycling of solar panels in Europe. He is also heavily involved in supporting young unprivileged adults by introducing new concepts, culture and professional opportunities.

Raul VIDAL Y SEPULVEDA, Founding Partner, Brickstone Holdings, Puerto Rico Hub

Expertise: Human rights, Converging humanitarian and commercial spheres

As a Founding Partner at Brickstone Holdings, LLC, Raul consults on economic development strategies, market entry, and site selection. Formerly, he served as Assistant Secretary for International Relations in the Department of Economic Development of Puerto Rico, and later as official representative of the Government in the city of New York. He has attracted over $700 million in foreign direct investments, including Puerto Rico's first commercial bank in 30 years, its first A rated re-insurance firm, and several corporate headquarters.

Ivan VOZMILOV, Head of Youth Programmes, Ural State University, Ekaterinburg Hub

Expertise: International youth educational projects, Multicultural dialogue

Ivan works to establish platforms for dialogue and cultural exchange between youth. He has managed a number of international cultural projects, such as 'American dream in Ekaterinburg' (a project to facilitate communication between Russian and American youth), round tables for students with the Ambassadors of Benin and Ecuador in Russia, the 'Lilac mood' (joint project with the Ecole Centrale de Lille, France), the First Eurasian Youth Forum on Economics, and the youth chapter of Astana Economic Forum in Kazakhstan. He is also a host for 'The Eurasian Youth Bulletin' TV programme.

Ling WONG, Technology Investor and Entrepreneur, LW Ventures, Seattle Hub

Expertise: Investment, Entrepreneurship, Technology, Healthcare, Biotechnology

While completing her PhD, Ling developed an inhaled vaccine for tuberculosis. Passionate about working at the interface of technological innovation for applications in the developing world, Ling was instrumental in translation of this inhaled technology to a group in South Africa. She has established venture capital initiative ($1B under management), closed investments in biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies and served on Board of Directors. Formerly Senior Programme Officer at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and an interim Chief of Staff for Office of the President Global Health.

Su En YONG, Founding Recruitment Director, Teach for Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur Hub

Expertise: Education, Social inequity, Public sector

After working in management consulting in London, Su En returned to Malaysia to join a team of social entrepreneurs to establish Teach For Malaysia, a non-profit organization addressing education inequity. As Founding Recruitment Director, she enlisted 50 outstanding Malaysians to teach in underperforming schools. Currently, working for The Boston Consulting Group, Kuala Lumpur, focused on the public sector.

