We are immensely grateful to Professor Xavier Sala-i-Martin, Chief Advisor of The Global Competitiveness Report, for his longstanding guidance and support, and to Margareta Drzeniek Hanouz, former Head of the System Initiative on Shaping the Future of Economic Progress, for her leadership and friendship over the years. We thank Saadia Zahidi, Head of the Centre for the New Economy and Society and Member of the Managing Board, for her unwavering support.

We are extremely grateful to Ilaria Marchese for her invaluable research assistance and to our colleagues in the Centre for the New Economy and Society for their help and support, in particular Ciara Porawski and Genesis El Hussein. We thank Michael Fisher and Andrew Wright for their excellent editing work and Neil Weinberg for his superb graphic design and layout.

The authors would like to thank the many experts, practitioners and government who provided valuable suggestions and feedback during the development of the Global Competitiveness Index 4.0.

We are also grateful to all the organizations, from which we source the indicators that compose the Index. Without their tremendous efforts in collecting data, this work would not be possible. In particular, we thank the staff of the following organizations for providing privileged access to datasets, and for their help, guidance, and feedback: Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation, International Air Transport Association, International Energy Agency, International Monetary Fund, International Telecommunications Union, International Trade Centre, International Trade Union Confederation, OECD, UNESCO, and the World Bank.

Finally, we acknowledge and thank the organizations listed on the following pages as our valued Partner Institutes, which help administer the Executive Opinion Survey and advance the competitiveness agenda in their respective economies.
