

World Economic Forum

Partnering Against Corruption Initiative (PACI) Members

Recognizing the power of multistakeholder, collaborative action in transforming the global, regional and industry agendas on combating corruption, the PACI Principles serve as a call to action for businesses around the world to commit to zero tolerance of corruption in all its forms; and to join collective action initiatives to increase public trust in business, deliver fair markets and level the playing field by fighting corruption.

(As of January 2016)

ABB	Greenberg Traurig LLP	Vestas Wind Systems
The Abraaj Group	Henkel AG & Co.	Weatherford International
Accenture	Hikma Pharmaceuticals	Wipro
Adecco Group	Hydro	WISKey
Agility	Iberdrola S.A.
AMEC Foster Wheeler Plc	IHS
Anheuser-Busch InBev	Infosys
APCO Worldwide	Japan Asia Group Limited
Aramex International	JLL
ARTOC Group for Investment and Development	KPMG International
Arup Group	Lixil Group Corporation
Bajaj Auto	Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd
Baker & McKenzie	ManpowerGroup
BASF	Marriott International
Basic Element	Mastercard International
CA Technologies	Microsoft Corporation
Clifford Chance	MSD
The Coca-Cola Company	Newmont Mining Corporation
Consolidated Contractors Company (CCC)	Oando Plc
Crescent Group Limited	Old Mutual
Danfoss A/S	Petrofac Services
Deloitte	PwC
Deutsche Post DHL	Royal DSM NV
Diageo Plc	Royal Dutch Shell
DuPont	Royal Philips
Ecolab Inc	Sahara Group
Edelman	Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC)
Embraer SA	Siemens AG
Empresas ICA SAB de CV	Skanska AB
Eni SpA	SNC-Lavalin Group
Eskom Holdings SOC Limited	Standard Chartered Bank
EY	Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide
Fluor Corporation	Schindler Management Ltd.
FTI Consulting	Statoil
Gas Cities Limited	Syngenta International AG
Genpact	Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson
Glencore plc	Thomson Reuters
GranBio Investimentos SA	Vattenfall AB
Google	Veracity Worldwide LLC
Grupo Marhnos		