Leadership: Trusting the Future

Africa faces significant socio-economic challenges, yet citizens' expectations are high. It's easy to be cynical about leaders and institutions while bemoaning the lack of progress. What role can the younger generation play in creating an open, just and prosperous society?

- What can we learn from Africa's leadership story?
- What are the biggest challenges Africa faces with leadership today? How can they be resolved?
- How can the next generation of leaders enable Africa to fulfil its potential?

This session will engage the local community by bringing together students from local schools and universities.

- Fatima Haram Acyl, Commissioner for Trade and Industry, African Union, Addis Ababa; Global Agenda Council on Competitiveness
- Moustapha Ben Barka, Deputy Secretary-General, Office of the President of the Republic of Mali; Young Global Leader; Global Agenda Council on the Demographic Dividend
