

World Economic Forum

Partnering Against Corruption Initiative (PACI) Signatories

Recognizing the power of multi-stakeholder, collaborative action in transforming the global, regional and industry agendas on combating corruption, the PACI Principles serve as a call to action for businesses around the world to commit to zero tolerance of corruption in all its forms; and to join collective action initiatives to increase public trust in business, deliver fair markets and level the playing field by fighting corruption.

(As of June 2022)

ABB	JLL
Absa Group Limited	KPMG International
Accenture	Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd
Agility	Manpower Group
Aker ASA	Marhnos SA de CV
Anglo American	Marriott International
Anheuser-Busch InBev	Mastercard International
APCO Worldwide	Mercuria
ARTOC Group for Investment and Development	Microsoft Corporation
Arup Group	Natura &Co
Bajaj Auto Ltd	Nedbank Group Limited
Baker & McKenzie	Newmont Mining Corporation
Banco Hipotecario SA	Nokia Corporation
BASF	Novartis International AG
Boston Consulting Group (BCG)	Oando Plc
Citigroup	Old Mutual
The Coca-Cola Company	Pathfinder Group
Codewise Sp. z o.o. Sp. k.	Petroleo Brasileiro SA – (PETROBRAS)
Consolidated Contractors Company (CCC)	PETRONAS
Crescent Group Limited	PwC
Danfoss A/S	Repsol
Dell Technologies	Royal DSM NV
Deloitte	Royal Philips
Dentsu Aegis Network	Saudi Basic Industries Corporation (SABIC)
Deutsche Post DHL	Saudi Telecom Group
EastNets	Shell plc
Ecolab Inc	Siemens AG
Ecopetrol SA	SNC-Lavalin Group
Edelman	Societatea Nationala Nuclearelectrica SA
Enel SpA	Standard Chartered Bank
Eni SpA	Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation (SMBC)
Equinor	Syngenta International AG
Eurasian Resources Group SàRL	Telenor Group
EY	TotalEnergies
Fluor Corporation	UBS AG
Glencore plc	Unilever
Google (Alphabet)	Vattenfall AB
GranBio Investimentos SA	Vestas Wind Systems
Henkel AG & Co.	Walmart Inc.
Hewlett Packard Enterprise	Western Union
Hikma Pharmaceuticals	Yara International ASA
HSBC
Iberdrola S.A.
Infosys	