Centre for the New Economy and Society

Catalysing resilience and growth through equity and inclusion

Context: Regression and momentum

The events of recent years have shown that progress on inclusion is easily reversible:

- The COVID-19 pandemic caused a generational loss on gender equality, increasing the projected time to reach global gender parity from 100 to 132 years.
- Economic vulnerabilities have been exacerbated and social and political polarization has grown.
- Cost-of-living crises have affected those who were already disadvantaged, while crisis management has detracted from longer-term investments in human development.

At the same time, there is significant momentum in the corporate and policy space to accelerate equity and inclusion efforts. Diversity, Equity and Inclusion is fundamental to the creativity needed for reviving growth and building resilience against future shocks.

A time for leadership

The World Economic Forum’s Global Parity Consortium is a coalition of chief executives, chairpersons, ministers and other senior leaders who share the vision of a renewed growth and resilience agenda driven by equity and inclusion.

And practical solutions

As part of the initiatives brought together under the Global Parity Consortium, the DEI Lighthouse Programme is designed to pragmatically identify proven, effective DEI initiatives from companies across industries and geographies and to share key lessons learned with business and public sector leaders around the world.
DEI Lighthouse Programme: Overview of Objectives

Surface

Submission process

— DEI Lighthouses are corporate initiatives that have demonstrated significant, scalable, quantifiable, and sustained impact for (an) underrepresented group(s).

— Lighthouses can be about diversity, equity, and/or inclusion; about employees, suppliers, customers, and/or the broader community; and address any underrepresented group (e.g., gender, race/ethnicity, LGBTQI+, people with disabilities or intersectional identities).

— Organisations are invited to submit a DEI initiative for review as part of the 2023/24 DEI Lighthouse Programme.

Highlight

Selection Process

— The Lighthouse Programme is designed to pragmatically identify proven, effective DEI initiatives from companies across industries and geographies and to share key lessons learned with business and public sector leaders around the world.

— An independent panel of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion experts with diverse background and expertise will review the submissions against a set of predefined criteria and select the 2023-24 cohort of DEI Lighthouses.

— The World Economic Forum’s Diversity, Equity and Inclusion team will extract key conclusions and takeaways from the set of submissions on the evolution of DEI in the corporate sector.

Scale

Insight Report

— Lighthouses will be featured in a World Economic Forum Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Insight Report highlighting the selected initiatives and the factors that led to their success.

— The impact, insights and learnings from the Lighthouses and emerging initiatives will be shared at the 2024 Annual Meeting in Davos and across different Forum channels, including the Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officers Dialogue Series.

— The aim is to equip leaders with insights and tools to help focus DEI efforts on what works best, and ultimately contribute to faster, scalable DEI impact.
DEI Lighthouse Programme: Timeline and Selection Process

Written submission

- Organizations submit a detailed description of their initiative via this confidential online form.

- A word version of the questionnaire for your internal use is available via this link.

- Submit your application via the online form by June 30, 2023, 18:00 Central European Time. Applications received after this date will not be considered.

Follow-up call

- Organizations whose submissions fulfil the minimum requirements will join a call with the World Economic Forum’s DEI team for a consultation on their case.

- As minimum requirements, the World Economic Forum asks for submissions to:
  - Be complete
  - Address the four dimensions of impact laid out in the “selection criteria” (slide 5)

Expert panel selection

- The Forum’s DEI team prepares a standardized and anonymized synthesis of all cases based on the written submission.

- An external panel of global DEI experts reviews the submissions which fulfil the minimum requirements and selects the 2023-24 DEI Lighthouses.

What happens next?

If your case is selected as a DEI Lighthouse:

- Partner with us to showcase your company’s case in the next DEI Lighthouse Insight Report.
- Once the report is published ahead of the Annual Meeting, help us promote and amplify its impact via your own media channels.
- Stay tuned for Annual Meeting 2024 opportunities for your organization’s executives.

If your case is not selected as a DEI Lighthouse:

- The DEI Lighthouse Programme is an annual exercise. Companies whose submissions are not selected are invited to participate in future cycles.
- Learning opportunities are open to all who submitted a case.

What information do I have to share and what does the Forum do with it?

The Lighthouse Programme is based on self-reporting and sharing.

Participating in the Lighthouse selection process does not require any broad data sharing or reporting, only initiative-level data for your submission—including what your organization did, successes, learnings, and any metrics to indicate impact.

Protecting your privacy is a top priority.

The Forum will not evaluate your company’s implementation or monitor activities. While your impact will be made public and shared widely if selected, the Lighthouses are not an audit or certification tool.

My company is not a member of the World Economic Forum. Can I participate in the Lighthouse programme?

The DEI Lighthouse programme is an effort to surface, highlight and share insights on DEI initiatives from different industries, companies and geographies. As such, any company can make a submission independently of their membership to the World Economic Forum.

Access to other activities related to the DEI Lighthouse Programme (Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer Dialogue Series, in-person Summits, Annual Meeting in Davos), is reserved to World Economic Forum members only.
